

Matching and Workplace Giving

California is home to the largest and most diverse state park system in the country. With 280 parks, everyone can enjoy the natural beauty and diversity of our state's mountains, rivers, coastlines, forests and deserts.

As a key nonprofit partner of the California Department of Parks and Recreation, our focus is to

- Expand and support park programs, amenities, and resources;
- Bring younger and more diverse audiences to parks and public lands; and
- Help ensure our parks meet the evolving needs of all Californians.

Support our vision for State Parks and public lands through your employee benefits.

MATCHING GIFTS is a corporate program that rewards an employee's charitable contributions. When an employee makes a donation to an eligible nonprofit, the employer "matches" the gift. Companies of all sizes match donations their employees make to nonprofits to support good work in their communities.

WORKPLACE GIVING is another way to make tax-deductible donations. Contributions are taken directly out of your paycheck at whatever amount you choose. Recurring donations are particularly helpful, because they help those organizations you care about to focus their efforts where it is needed most.
